

28 DAYS OF OSCAR WHAT MAKES AN OSCAR WINNER?

Anjelica Huston likes to keep it in the family.

The build up to the biggest party of the year is fast approaching, where the most glamorous names in show business will gather to show off their designer clothes, their sparkling jewellery and their most outrageous acceptance speeches as some of them get ready to walk off with the most coveted awards in the industry- it can only mean the Oscars. In preparation for the big night, this February, film channel TCM (Turner Classic Movies) celebrates the 78th Academy Awards Ceremony, with one of its most popular annual seasons, 28 Days of Oscar. Every day for an entire month, in the run up to the ceremony on Sunday 5th March 2006, TCM features the biggest stars, the best films and the most gifted directors who have either won or been nominated for the most coveted golden statue. This year's host for the season is the Oscar-winning actress, Anjelica Huston, who introduces some of her personal favourites every Tuesday at 3pm and Sunday at 9pm. Along with her grandfather, Walter Huston and her father, John Huston, Anjelica has achieved unique Oscar history by being one of just two families to boast three generations of winners, matched only by the Coppolas. To see which films and movie stars have earned their Oscars join TCM every day in February from 1pm.

The 78th Annual Academy Awards can be seen on Sky One on Monday 6th March.

THE JEALOUS GOD ★★★

Directed by Steven Woodcock February 20th brings the DVD release of this overlooked British film. Set in the 1960s, this morality tale weaves a romance that gets tangled up in a triangle of family, religion and passion.
Starring: Denise Welch, Chloe Newsome, Jason Merrells, Roy Walker, Mairead Carty, Andrew Dunn This is one of those crafty little films that manages to get under your skin. It is absolutely worth a look on DVD if you weren't able to find it at a cinema near you.
Rated - 12A 92 Minutes

LOS DEBUTANTES ★★★

Directed by Andres Waissbluth From Revolver Entertainment comes a Chilean film that probably flew under your radar when it was recently released on DVD. This critically acclaimed film simmers throughout with a three-tiered structure reminiscent of "Rashomon" and a style that harkens back to Tarantino's first few films. Dark and intense, "Los Debutantes" comes to a boil in the final scenes. It makes for a thrilling DVD rental and you should make an effort to seek it out if you missed the limited cinema run.
Starring: Antonella Rios, Nestor Cantillana, Juan Pablo Miranda
Rated - 18 114 Minutes

24: SEASON 4 ★★★★★

Directed by Brad Turner Jack Bauer is back to save the world one more time in the fourth season of "24". Just when you think this series has pushed the envelope as far as possible, it takes it one step further. The cast is uniformly superb. The editing and overlapping storyline is handled to perfection. And the tension never relents as Jack heads towards yet another astonishing conclusion. Season 5 will hit TV screens this month, so you will have to catch up with this great DVD Box Set. But be warned... This series is more addictive than drugs!
Starring: Kiefer Sutherland, Reiko Aylesworth, Carlos Bernard, Kim Raver, Dennis Haysbert, Mia Kirshner
Rated - 15 24 Episodes

LOST: SEASON 1 ★★★★★

Directed by J.J. Abrams The mysterious cult phenomenon that has captivated millions on the small screen gets the full treatment on DVD in a Deluxe Box Set with hours of deleted scenes, featurettes, audition tapes and commentaries. But the real treasures are the episodes themselves. This is one of the very best TV shows of the decade and if you are not already hooked, you will be if you sit through just one episode. This is one of the best DVD buys of the month. Make room on the shelf now!
Starring: Matthew Fox, Evangeline Lilly, Naveen Andrews, Dominic Monaghan, Kim Yun-jin, Maggie Grace, Emilie de Ravin

WOLF CREEK ★

Directed by Greg McLean This Australian import is a cold-blooded film that has virtually no redeeming value. Even hardcore horror fans will find some of the scenes tasteless. One gets the feeling that this film takes pleasure with its horrific nature. It shouldn't. It crosses that imaginary line into brutal exploitation. Steer clear at all costs.
Starring: John Jarratt, Cassandra Magrath, Andy McPhee, Kestie Morassi
Rated - 18 96 Minutes
